OUR SERVICE OFFERING

Welcome to RIS Industrial Supplies. We specify high quality mechanical and engineering products to companies in the industrial sector.

As an industrial wholesale and supply company we have a duty to guarantee that every customer has the best product imaginable. As such, we have sourced only high-quality items to guarantee your success.

With more than a decade and a half of knowledge we know exactly what your business needs. When you step into our store you will have several alternatives to choose from. The brands we supply have all been tried and have beaten rigorous tests in order to be sold.

RIS Industrial Supplies is a leader in the supply of industrial and engineering products. Browse through both our products and services to find exactly what you require.

We also supply tools for any and all of your tooling requirements with an abundance of choice.

We are proud to boast about our superior delivery service with competent and dedicated drivers available. This ensures that your supply will be brought within a short amount of time. Moreover, it assures that you will receive your stock and be able to use it immediately. This will of course decrease the amount of downtime you will be under.
